bash - Movement

Ctrl + a go to the start of the command line

Ctrl + e
go to the end of the command line

Ctrl + xx
(toggle) beginning of line/cursor position

Alt + b
previous word begin

Alt + f
next word end

Ctrl + f
forward one character

Ctrl + b
back one character

bash - Manipulation

Alt + c
from cursor, capitalize to end of word

Alt + u
from cursor, uppercase to end of word

Alt + l
from cursor, lowercase to end of word

Alt + t
transpose word with previous word

Ctrl + t
transpose character with previous character

bash - Command Control

Ctrl + l
clear screen

Ctrl + s
stops screen output (for verbose commands)

Ctrl + q
allow screen output (undo Ctrl+S)

Ctrl + c
terminate command

Ctrl + z
suspend command/send to background (use fg to bring forward)

bash - Command Recall

Ctrl + r
search history backward

Ctrl + g
escape from history search mode

Ctrl + p
previous command in history (walk back)

Ctrl + n
next command in history (walk forward)

Alt + .
last word of previous command

bash - Cut/Paste/Delete

Ctrl + u
from cursor, delete to start of line

Ctrl + k
from cursor, delete to end of line

Ctrl + w
from cursor, delete to start of word

Alt + d
from cursor, delete to end of word

Ctrl + d
delete character under cursor

Ctrl + h
delete character before cursor

Ctrl + y
after cursor, paste cut/deleted text

bash - Bang (!) Commands

!!
run last command

!foo
run most recent command starting with 'foo'

!foo:p
print most recent command starting with 'foo'

!$
last word of previous command (Alt + .)

!*
previous command without last argument

!*:p
print previous command without last argument